

HOUSE CONCERT

To Benefit Country Dance*New York
Presenting

Peter and Karen Sutherland

February 10, 2008

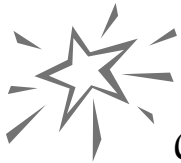

3:00 PM

Celebrate the Winter in the Upper West Side.
at 2166 Broadway (between 76 and 77 streets)

Pete and Karen Sutherland, Champlain Valley born-and-raised, are twenty-five-year-plus veterans of the New England and national folk scenes. They are known for their wide knowledge of traditional music and music-making styles, at schools, libraries, dances, festivals and celebrations and in their commitment to rooting out the best of the old and injecting their own sensibilities as well, the SUTHERLANDS represent the living folk tradition—links in the endless chain of people making music that breathes and dances in their own rhythm, that tells their own stories.

Tickets cost $20.00 and are available at all
New York City Contra and English dances, or by mail to:
CD*NY, P.O. Box 878, Village Station, New York NY 10014
Admission is limited so buy your tickets early!

Please send any questions to peteandkarenconcert@gmail.com
For information about the Sutherlands, please see their internet site epactmusic.com/petekaren.html